STORM CENTER ABOUT EVELYN AT THAW TRIAL

WILL BE RESUMED WHEN
STANFORD WHITE'S SLAYER
FACES JURY.

DEFENSE TO BE INSANITY

And This Will Be Predicated Upon the Young Wife's Sensational Story.

New York, Dec. 30.—One week from today Harry K. Thaw will be called a second time before a jury to make his defense to the charge of having murdered Stanford White.

Mrs. William Thaw, mother of the defendant, is expected in the city by next Saturday. Mrs. Thaw has been in poor health, but believes she will be able to be with her son at the trial.

Other members of the family circle, including Mrs. George Carnegie, Harry Thaw's sister, and Joseph and Edward Thaw, his brothers, are also expected to reach the city during the week, and will remain throughout the trial. The Duchess of York, the defendant's sister, is at present in England, and is not expected to attend the second trial. Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, who has been a daily visitor at the Tombs ever since the first Thaw jury disagreed, will be one of the first arrivals in the courtroom on Monday next.

There have been many rumors as to the plans of the defense for the second hearing of the case, and it has been predicted that an entirely new line of action might be followed. It can be authoritatively stated, however, that the defense will again be the same; that Evelyn Nesbit Thaw will again relate her story to the jury, and that an imposing array of alienists will again undertake to establish the theory that Thaw was insane at the time he killed Stanford White, but has since recovered his mental balance, and therefore is entitled to freedom.

There is no longer any doubt that Evelyn Thaw will take the stand in defense of her husband. Without her testimony it would be difficult for the defense to predicate a plea of insanity.

Evelyn Thaw will be again the storm center of the trial, and next in importance to her story will be the testimony of several alienists who testified before.

District Attorney Jerome will be prepared to combat the testimony of the insanity experts.

Martin W. Littleton of Brooklyn, who nominated Alton B. Parker for president of the last Democratic National convention, will act as leading counsel. He will have the assistance of Daniel O'Reilly and A. Russell Peabody, both of whom went through the first trial.

Thaw is looking forward anxiously to the beginning of his new trial. He feels that all chance of further delay is past and will enter the court room with the same confidence of acquittal which has marked his attitude from the first.

HUMAN REMAINS IN THE CASKET OF T. C. DRUCE

INVESTIGATION PROVES STORY OF BOGUS FUNERAL TO BE ABSOLUTELY FALSE.

CLAIMANT TO A TITLE

Will Probably Lose His Case As It Will Likely Be Thrown Out of Court.

London, Dec. 30.—Thomas Charles Druce's coffin contains human remains. It was opened at High Gate cemetery today and inside was found the body of an aged, bearded man. The features were unrecognizable, but there is no doubt but that the corpse was that of Druce himself. Though George Holamby Druce, claimant to the title and estate of the Duke of Devon, says his case is unshaken by the discovery. It is generally considered that the investigation wrecks his hopes. The story by Robert Caldwell, the New Yorker, who swore he engineered the bogus funeral for Druce, and buried 200 pounds of lead in his coffin, is proven absolutely untrue. Herbert Druce says he will push the case against the latter who is under arrest in New York. The general opinion is that the proof of the death of Portland and Druce fifteen years apart, and the consequent certainty that Druce was not the duke masquerading as a small London tradesman, will be shortly followed by the throwing of the claimant's case out of court.

PRESIDENT'S ORDER NOT PROMULGATED BY THE DEPARTMENT

Washington, Dec. 30.—President Roosevelt's order that Surgeon Chas. F. Stokes be directed to command the hospital ship Relief has not yet been promulgated by the Navy department. Rear Admiral Brownson, who resigned as chief of the bureau rather than issue the order, was relieved by Commander Cameron McRae Winslow, and Secretary Taft was busy at his desk all day, but the Stokes order did not come up for their consideration.

Meanwhile the clash between Surgeon General Rixey on one side and the line officers of the navy was made more acute. Angered at the suppression of Rear Admiral Brownson's letter explaining the reason for resigning and smarting under the last of Dr. Rixey's statement, which naval officers consider as representing the President's attitude and as sanctioned by the White House, line officers to a man were scoring what they said were "the obviously unfair methods of the chief executive." They lost no time in picking Dr. Rixey's statement to pieces and declare they can invoke the law to prevent President Roosevelt from carrying out the designs of him whom they call "his favorite doctor." Other than Secretary Metcalf and a few staff officers there are none who have a good word to say for the proposed policy.

KILLED TRIMMING TREE

Youngstown, Dec. 30.—A fall, which was sustained by the 13 year old Clara Neville, while she was helping to trim a Christmas tree for a bazaar at St. Columbus' church, last week, resulted in her death yesterday. Her leg was broken in the fall, and blood poisoning developed.

HIS MILLIONS GONE, E. G. STEDMAN DIES BENEATH A SUBWAY TRAIN

ERNEST G. STEDMAN

New York, Dec. 30.—Worried over the loss of the fortune of more than $1,000,000 he had spent his life to build up, and suffering from the effects of a severe attack of the grip, Ernest Griffin Stedman, a lawyer and member of a distinguished family, leaped or fell in front of a subway train and was instantly killed.

Mr. Stedman had carefully concealed the true status of his financial affairs from his family until after Christmas day, and they were loath to believe his death anything but an accident.

"I'M POISONED GET A DOCTOR" HE SHOUTED

TO THE SURPRISED CLERK AT THE WARDEN HOTEL SUNDAY MORNING.

MIND IS UNBALANCED

And He Was Taken to County Jail
and Pennsylvania Relatives Were Notified.

"Get a doctor quick. I have been poisoned," shouted a stranger to one of the clerks at the Hotel Warden, as he rushed into the office Sunday morning.

To the surprised clerk he said that he was from Pennsylvania and that a woman named Pitcairn had poisoned him. "Yes," said he, "she placed thirteen tubes of arsenic in my shoes and I am suffering terribly. Get a doctor, quick."

Dr. C. H. Stimson was summoned, and quickly responding found him to be suffering from melancholia, probably caused by family trouble. Officers Zergibel and Brooke were called and took the man to the county jail where he is being cared for by Sheriff Redman. The stranger, who gave his name as A. C. Steele, is a fine looking man, and was exceedingly well dressed. From his talk it is inferred that he came to this city from Pittsburgh. The only thing on his person lending to show his identity is a letter from Dayton signed W. E. Covenden, a nurseryman of that place. Sheriff Redman immediately wired him for information and received an answer in which he was told to wire the postmaster of New Bethlehem, Pa., as he had relatives in that place. The sheriff did as advised.

Monday afternoon the sheriff received a wire that Steele was a brother and sister in Brookville, Pa., and was endeavoring to get in communication with them.

BROUGHT BACK DEAD.

Kent, Dec. 30.—Sunday was a day of sad homecomings in Kent. Yesterday morning the body of Ethel Lyman, aged 19, who committed suicide in Detroit, by shooting herself, arrived here, and the remains of Frank C. J. Kenrick arrived from Greenville, Pa., where he dropped dead of apoplexy. He was raised in this city but for many years had been a mining engineer at Denver, being known all over the west.

YWOMAN MURDER MYSTERY IN NEW JERSEY

WHERE BODY OF WOMAN WAS FOUND AT HARRISON, N. J.

THEORIES

OF POLICE AND DETECTIVES
IN NEW JERSEY MURDER
MYSTERY.

BODY IS UNIDENTIFIED

Man Views It in the Morgue and Falls in a Faint—Letter Found from Mother.

Harrison, N. J., December 30.—Realizing the full dastardness surrounding the find of the nude body of a woman in a swamp near here on Thursday morning, the police of Newark and Harrison are bending every effort at least to identify the victim and locate the murderer. The body has not been identified.

The so-called identifications have now apparently all been exploded.

The latest clue was a visit to the morgue today of a man who said he was from Jersey City. He declared he was looking for a woman whose first name was Cora, and whose surname began with "S." After one look at the body he fell in a faint and his friends hurried him from the morgue. The statement of the man fits so accurately with the evidence that the police are looking through the lists of missing women for Cora S.

Near where the body was found the police picked up a letter to "Cora," evidently written by a mother to her daughter. "Dear Cora, ask God to help you. You may yet be saved and restored to loved ones. Now think earnestly of these words. Pray earnestly over your future. God is good."

The police think the woman was killed because she interfered with the plans of some man. Detectives think the body was brought to the place where it was found in a vehicle.

NEW CURE

TO BE CALLED "CHRISTIAN PSYCHOLOGY" ADVOCATED BY BISHOP FALLOWS.

It Is Akin In Many of Its Phases To Christian Science—The New Propaganda.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—"Christian Psychology" is the name applied to a new belief to be taught by Bishop Fallows, of the Reformed Episcopal church. It embodies faith cure of certain classes of disease and is in a degree similar to Christian Science. Bishop Fallows announces that in the new future his church, St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal, will with the advice and assistance of several of the leading neurologists and other physicians, undertake the healing work. Regular weekly meetings of those afflicted in "mind, body or estate" will be inaugurated next Thursday afternoon.

In launching his new propaganda of faith cure, Bishop Fallows said: "Christian Psychology" in relation to health and happiness is the inseparable alliance between religion and scientific medicine for the cure of disease. It asserts the triumph of power of the mind in the treatment of functional nervous disorders of hypochondria, melancholia, nervous dyspepsia, melancholia, mental depression, hysteria, neurasthenia, drug habits, want of self-confidence, irritability, worry, anger, fear, weakness of will and the like.

"Christian Psychology uses every curative agent in the world of nature

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS

W. H. KELLEY LAY HELPLESS
TRYING TO ATTRACT NOTICE
He Finally Succeeded After Many Hours in Making
His Condition Known to Passerby and is Now Receiving Care at Sanitarium.

His family away, and in a serious condition from lying helpless at his home, 12 North Pine street, since last Friday, from a stroke of paralysis sustained that day, W. H. Kelley, 47, is at the Sanitarium with his entire right side affected by the stroke. Kelley tried many times to attract attention of passerby, but was unable to make any of them notice his frantic signals of distress. Sunday morning when he was weak from lack of nourishment and unable to move from the stroke that paralyzed his entire right side, he finally succeeded in attracting the attention of a neighbor, who entered the house in response to his motions.

At once seeing his condition, the ambulance of Criss Bros. & Jones was called and he was removed to the Sanitarium and Dr. Shirer called in attendance. His condition is rather serious, from the days he went without medical attention, but under proper care he may recover entirely from the stroke.

TRUE CHARGES IN AN ARTICLE ABOUT A

AND VETERAN ADMIRAL G. F. GOODRICH
EDDLY ADMITS THAT WEAKNESSES EXIST.

HIS LIPS ARE SEALED

By Orders From the Department
He Restrains Expression With Difficulty.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—The charges that there are glaring weaknesses in the discipline of the United States navy as recently made in a magazine article, were admitted to be true Sunday by Rear Admiral C. F. Goodrich, commander of the New York navy yard, who is considered one of the briskest men in the naval service. Not only are the charges true, according to the guarded admissions of the veteran admiral, but many of the high officials in the navy, himself among them, have notified the department at Washington officially of the existing weaknesses.

Admiral Goodrich stopped off in Chicago during the day on his way to San Diego, Cal., where he will direct the unveiling of a monument erected by the soldiers of the Pacific squadron in memory of the 66 men killed in the explosion aboard the small cruiser Bennington in 1905.

When seen at the Chicago club it was apparent that he held himself in check with some exertion.

One of the charges in the magazine article, which was by Henry Reuter, editor of the Fighting Ships, and an acknowledged authority on naval matters, was that "Criticism is stifled." Admiral Goodrich's first statement corroborated that much. When a few more questions concerning the much talked about criticisms were asked at him the Admiral side-stepped.

"Well, you know, my lips are locked against discussions reflecting on the navy," he said. "That is an order of the department. Yes, I believe the order is much more exacting in the navy than in the army."

"I have heard a lot about the charges made in the article," he continued. "I will say this much, that Reuter's knowledge of what he was talking about isn't true. I have a copy of the magazine in my grip upstairs and have read it carefully."

"I have officially expressed myself on those matters to the department," at the solicitation of the secretary.

"Were the opinions solicited before or after the publication of the criticisms?" was asked.

"I am pretty sure it was before. Yes, several weeks ago, and I feel sure a number of our officers—I did not see the letters, but I have reason to believe they did—reported the same criticisms back to the department. The secretary sent us letters soliciting suggestions. The critics declared the vessels are built too low and the shell proof armor belt is below the water line on practically all the fighting ships," was suggested.

"Yes, that is true," replied the Admiral.

"Well, is that due to any fault of the navy officers or to the contractors who constructed the vessels?"

"Now, that's getting too deep. I can't answer that question. I tell you, my boy, nothing would please me more than to answer all those questions—just to raise the safety valve long enough to let off steam, but I can't do it."

When it was pointed out that Rear Admiral George W. Melville had criticized the stifle of the bureau in the department as responsible for whatever weaknesses there are in the navy, Admiral Goodrich said: "Well, Rear Admiral Melville is on the retired list, and so is over the fence, so to speak, in regard to talking about the navy. I don't think that is an altogether fair statement."

POSITION

WILL BE CREATED FOR FORMER
GENERAL MANAGER THOS.
FITZGERALD.

Cause of Resignation Said to Have Been Difference With Mr. Potter
as to Management.

An Advocate telegram last Saturday told of the resignation of General Manager Thomas Fitzgerald of the Baltimore & Ohio Railway company, after a service with the road extending over 41 years, embracing nearly every position subordinate to the general managership. A later dispatch from Baltimore says that President Oscar G. Murray will create another position for Mr. Fitzgerald and retain him in the service of the B. & O. Mr. Fitzgerald's resignation is said to have been the outcome of differences with Mr. Potter, relative to the operation of the road.
These have existed for a long time, but are said to have recently become very acute.

Mr. Fitzgerald's resignation is to take effect on Wednesday, January 1.
Third Vice President Geo. L. Potter is to assume the duties of the position temporarily consolidating them with his own.

The general manager formerly lived in Newark and has very many friends in this city. His brother, J.
P. Fitzgerald is at present train master with headquarters in Newark.

AMUSEMENTS

THE REAL WIDOW BROWN.

"The Real Widow Brown" was in Newark Saturday and pleased two good audiences immensely, when she appeared at the Auditorium. The play, a farce comedy, was full of humorous situations, clever lines and funny stage business, and went with a scream from start to finish. The company were well up in their lines and the entire production ran smoothly from curtain to curtain.
Cute songs well rendered were in-terlarded during the action of the play. The old time play, the show with a heart interest, "Way Down East" is the attraction for tonight, and a big advance sale augurs a packed house. "The Minister's Son," a high class comedy drama is booked at this theater for Wednesday, matinee and night.

WAY DOWN EAST.

"Way Down East" with its homely rural types returns to the Auditorium this evening. The record of this rural play from a statistical standpoint is truly remarkable. It is estimated that it has been seen by more than 2,500,000 people, and its gross takings have been in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. It has more metropolitan runs to its credit than any other play of the present time.
The natural deduction is that it is a meadow. Withal, the story of the play points a moral that is applicable to all mankind. This moral is not hung out like a sign post, but is unconsciously absorbed. "Way Down East" is a clean play and a wholesome one. The clergy has not hesi-tated to endorse it. It is a drama full of what is termed heart interest.

It is a story of the wrong done a young and trusting woman and the retribution which overtakes the man who betrayed her by a false marriage, and is one to stir the soul and thrill the being.

THE MINISTER'S SON.

Very unusual indeed is the play that will bear repetition. Some may please for the time, but few have real vitality and are lasting. "The Minister's Son" which has been presented here before by an admirable company is still associated in many minds with an evening of extreme pleasure.
One rare merit must be granted this play, a merit that is likely to give it enduring popularity, and that is, that the play, however often witnessed, cannot fail to arouse the keenest interest and to leave the most vivid impression, such interest, such impression, are not imparted or even suggested by any other work of current drama that we can call to mind, and Manager Johnson is to be congratulated on having secured this really excellent attraction for a reappearance New Year's day, afternoon
and night.

MINSTRELS THIS WEEK.

Borchers' Fashion Plate Minstrels will be the attraction for Saturday afternoon and night next at the Auditorium.

ORPHIUM THEATER.

The show this week is reported to be a comedy bill of no mean ability, and with a high class novelty act and excellent singing and dancing.

Massumator and Aganah's troupe of Japanese artists head the bill, being one of the latest arrivals from Tokio, Japan. This act will be a great drawing card.

Floyd Mack, comedy sketch artists, will produce their latest comedy act, entitled "The Lightning Red Man."

Eddie Dwyer, that clever fellow, with his routine of jokes and good singing and dancing, will please and the illustrated song and motion pictures are eloquent. Seats on sale for

OPEN HOUSE

Public Invited to Y. M. C. A. New Year's Day—Fine Program is Prepared.

The committee in charge of the Open House, New Year's day, at the Y. M. C. A., hereby invite the public, including all Newark people and their friends, to their building New Year's day. No printed invitations are being issued this year. We have no accurate list of all the friends of the association, so rather than slight some it was deemed best to make the invitation general and confine it to this form. Remember that you are invited and will be expected and desired.

The program is an interesting one.
In the morning all the boys of the city are invited to the building.
There will be fun in the gym for them. The rest of Newark is invited to the afternoon and evening program. Beginning at 2 o'clock the public reception will commence. The building will be thrown open for inspection. The exhibits this year will have an unusual value, consisting of all kinds of work of art. Many fine paintings, oil and water, burnt wood, hammered metal and china. The photograph and post card exhibits will also be innovations and interesting exhibits.

At 3 o'clock there will be given an interesting literary and musical program. At 4 o'clock the following program will be given in the gymnasium: Fancy march by the Juniors; Senior class horse drill; gymnastic work by team; tumbling exhibition;
wrestling match, and a fancy sword dance.

Following this the annual New Year's supper will be served to all young men present including both member and others. The ladies who have been asked to contribute to this are requested to reply early Tuesday so that the committee may know what to expect.

At 7 o'clock will be held the evening reception. The board of trustees and committee will be present to see that everybody gets acquainted. The exhibits will be worth seeing. Much of the art work is of high class.

At 8 o'clock the gymnasium will again have an interesting attraction in the form of a basketball match.
The Columbus Y. M. C. A. and the local Y. M. C. A. teams will compete for the championship. This will be the big game of the season. Much interest is centering in this match, as the teams are thought to be evenly matched. Everything will be open to the public this day.

Our New Congressman. For a new congressman W. A. Ashbrook is making a record for himself in faithfully looking after the wants of his constituents.

To Hear Fritz Schief. Many Newark music lovers will go to Columbus Monday and Tuesday nights to hear Fritz Schief who plays a virtuoso engagement at the Great Southern, appearing in "Mile Modiste."

Conductor Operated On. John Powell, a popular B. & O. engineer, was operated on at the Sanitarium Sunday by Drs. Barnes, Shirer and Anderson. He rallied nicely from the anesthetic and being in good physical condition will probably recover rapidly.

Bright Prospects for Newark. Things are looking exceedingly bright for Newark upon the eve of the New Year. Several new schemes in the way of securing additional manufacturing for Newark are being worked up, and it is probable that something will be doing before long. The year 1908 promises to be a great one for Newark.

G. A. R. Meeting. In a meeting of the national executive committee of the Grand Army of the Republic held in Toledo a few days ago, the date of the national encampment of the Grand Army, to be held in Toledo, in 1908, was set for August 31, until September 7, and the national commander of the G. A. R. notified accordingly.

I. O. O. F. Christmas Treat. Canton Olive, No. 90 P. M. will give a treat to all children of the Old Follows and Rebekahs of Newark on New Year's night, Wednesday, January 1, 1908, at 7:30, at I. O. O. F. hall. Members of all the order are cordially invited. Refreshments will be served after the entertainment. Admission, adults 10 cents, children free. Come one, come all, and enjoy the evening with the children. 1f

Columbus vs. Y. M. C. A. The big first team of the Columbus Y. M. C. A. will meet the local boys on the floor of the Y gym New Year's night. This promises to be one of the big basketball games of the season. The Columbus Association boys are a very fast bunch and our own boys are working hard to get in shape for the hard grind they are to go through. The game will start at 8 p. m. sharp. Tickets are now on sale at 25 cents.

No Meeting Tuesday. There will be no assembly of Bigelow Council, No. 7, E. & S. M., on Wednesday evening.

The Occola Club. Will entertain with a moonlight dance Tuesday evening. Dancing the old year out and the new one in. 30-2 Meeting Day Changed. White Carnation Hive of the Macabees, will meet Tuesday instead of Wednesday on account of New Year's day.

Moved Office. The Licking Laundry company has moved its office from the corner of Fourth and Church streets to the Manhattan hotel building. 30-3

A Six O'Clock Dinner. Mrs. Mary M. Kenna entertained with a six o'clock dinner Sunday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Reagan. A number of guests were present.

Knights Templar. At the convocation of St. Luke's Commandery, Knights Templar, to be held on Tuesday night, there will be work in the Order of the Temple, and arrangements will be completed for the Coshooton trip Wednesday.

D. O. K. K. Meeting. There will be a meeting of the D. O. K. K. at the rooms of Roland lodge No. 202, Knights of Pythias, this evening, on which occasion the recently elected officers will be installed, the work to be followed by a smoker.

R. of M. Watch Social. Tuesday night, Roland lodge No. 202, Knights of Pythias, will hold a watch social at its rooms in the Anhele block, after the regular session of the lodge on Tuesday night. The Knights rank will probably be conferred. All Knights are invited to attend.

Cafe Remodeled. Mr. Robt. Tucker of the "Farmers' Rest" on North Cedar street, has just finished furnishing his road house anew. The bar is moved up into the front room and everything is the best of style. Mr. Tucker is a genial gentleman and caters to the best of trade.

House Burglarized. Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Cooney, of Jamaica, N. Y., who have been here for a few days visiting Mrs. Cooney's mother, Mrs. Rose Fitzgibbon, at her home on South Fourth street, received word that their home was burglarized and that quite a number of articles, including a seal skin sacque, had been carried off. The seal skin sacque, however, was recovered.

Remarkable Weather. This certainly is remarkable weather for this time of the year. It is more like spring than winter and there ought to be some good fishing at the lake. Sunday was a fine day and in various parts of town the kids were busy playing ball. Early Monday morning it started to rain and for a time it came down in torrents, flooding the streets and walks. We wonder of the weather man is going to give us any winter? If such is his intention he will have to get a move on, or spring will soon be here in real earnest.

Annual Dog Show. The second annual dog show given under the auspices of the Gold Medal Kennel club of this city, will open February 4, and continue through the 5th, 6th and 7th. The entries for same will open January 25. The show promises to be a great one.

MAYOR JOHN F. HURLEY.

MAYOR JOHN F. HURLEY'S SALIENT POINTS

Salem, Mass., Dec. 30.—Salem is trembling in its boots. John F. Hurley, twice mayor of the town, will resume his seat in the mayor's office January 6, having been elected last Tuesday.

Mr. Hurley's record in office is that of a man determined to do things. One of his first acts was to end in a false fire alarm to see for himself how the department would respond. Then he sent in a riot call to test the efficiency of the police. In both cases he found many nappers and resignations were demanded. All through his two terms Mayor Hurley kept the town awake and the people liked his methods.

be on a larger scale than heretofore, and some valuable prizes are to be offered. The show will occur at the armory and arrangements will be made to take care of a large number of animals.

Directors' Election. There will be directors' election of the Citizens' Building and Loan Association Wednesday night, January 1, 1908, at their office on Third street.

Special New Year's matinee at the Palace Rink Wednesday afternoon. 30d2t

Drunk Breaks Window. A drunk fell through a window on the Franklin street side of the Sailer Hotel this afternoon, and the breaking glass slightly cut one of the waitresses.

Watch Night Services. There will be a watch night service at the North Newark C. U. church corner Maple and North avenues, Tuesday evening beginning at 8 o'clock.

Tom Mother to Hospital. James Thompson, 37 South Second street, Sunday morning took his mother to the Protestant hospital in Columbus, to be operated on for a tumor. Dr. Leach performed the operation.

The Woman's Guild. The Woman's Guild of the First M. E. church will hold a reception in the church parlors Tuesday, December 31, from 7 to 10. All members of the church and congregation are invited. Light refreshments will be served.

Silent Circle. The next meeting of the Silent Circle of the King's Daughters and Sons will be held at the home of Mrs. Warren Wright, No. 37 Vine street, on Tuesday, December 31, at 7:30 p. m. All come. Mrs. F. T. Crouch, secretary.

H. S. Garvey has been appointed commercial freight agent for the B. & O., with headquarters in Milwaukee, vice H. C. Ross resigned. T. E. Ellis has been appointed traveling freight agent with headquarters in Chicago, succeeding H. S. Garvey, promoted.

Case will be Dropped. The case against Frank Curtis, who robbed the B. & O. depot at Nashport so as to get money to pay some debts, will probably be dropped as the young man has raised enough money to make up the deficit and the company does not care to prosecute him.

Old Railroadier Dies. William ("Old Bluff") Ross, father of W. F. Ross, the assistant train master here for the B. & O., died on Sunday morning at his home in Mansfield. Mr. Ross for years has been connected with the B. & O., and for the past several years was on the road's pension list. At the time of his death he was road supervisor for this division of the road.

Bids Opened. Bids were opened Monday noon for the letting of a retaining wall along Log Pond run between Elm and Fourth streets, by the Board of Public Service. The specification, called for 75 1-4 yards of reinforced concrete or 180 yards on plain concrete. There were eight bidders, Edward Slevin being the lowest on the reinforced wall, $556.10. On the plain concrete John Wagenheim was the lowest bidder, his bid being $541. The board will probably award the contract some time this afternoon or evening.

Ready in Jiffy, easy to prepare, a good, hearty breakfast is Mrs. Austin's famous pancakes.

BUSINESS CHANGED. A change was effected today in the management of the C. R. Parish & Co. Furniture store. C. L. Gamble, who has been the very efficient manager is succeeded today by G. W. Earle, who comes to this city from New Philadelphia, where he has been located for the past ten years.

Mr. Gamble goes to Columbus to take charge of the Columbus store, which is a well deserved promotion.

WHAT BAD HABIT WILL YOU QUIT?

Decided on that resolution? The time is getting short for you to make up your mind just what you are going to "swear off" doing for the year of 1908, and even if you don't keep that resolution for more than a few days you will be just that much ahead. The men will probably make the usual resolutions that tobacco will be cut down or be done away with entirely; the happy waters will be forsaken off awhile; the clubs will be minus their usual attendance for several nights—maybe; the usual careless oaths will be entirely forgotten; many bank accounts will be started and numerous other things pertaining to individuals will be dropped, according to the oaths.

The woman, too, usually have a lot of things that they are going to "cut out" for the next twelve months, and when the chimes toll out the fact that the New Year has arrived in all its glory, those of the remembrance will have new resolutions too numerous to mention. With them clubs will be done away with to a certain extent and wives and daughters will be more "homey" for the time being. Candy and coffee and other liquids indulged in by the fair sex will not be used; money will be saved as expensive dressers are to be done away with—probably; high priced hats are not necessary and cheaper ones will be purchased—maybe; chewing gum will be tabooed and theatres, to a certain extent, will lose their lady patrons—for about one show.

The claim was set up Saturday that a moral man or woman did not have to make the usual resolutions, that they were never kept, and if the person led any kind of a clean life that their resolutions were a far more than anything else, and usually were in most cases. The average life of a new resolution is about one week, but occasionally some strong-willed mortal hangs on for a month, then comes the relapse. Worse, probably, than the original habit or vice as you choose to call it. But, however, day maybe you have just one more day to decide on whether you are going to swear off or not, so if you are busy, think fast and make the resolution stick.

TO ENFORCE LAW AGAINST SALOON

GOVERNOR SMITH DECLARES THAT LETTER OF THE LAW WILL BE ADHERED TO.

Georgia is the First of the Southern States to Declare in Favor of Prohibition.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 30.—With the advent of the new year, the law preventing the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, passed by the last session of the legislature, becomes effective, making Georgia the first of the Southern states to be placed in the prohibition column. The law is very drastic in its prohibition and prevents the keeping or giving away of liquors in public places and imposes a tax of $500 on clubs whose members are allowed to keep drinks of an intoxicating nature in their individual lockers.

Notwithstanding the passage of this law, there is some agitation to have it declared unconstitutional. This action may be brought in the United States courts in the course of the next month.

It is estimated that Atlanta alone would lose in license taxes $155,612, and that the property value of saloons and breweries here, which will go out of business on January 1, is from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000. For the rest of the state, the property values involved are about $5,000,000. It is estimated that 10,000 persons will lose their employment when January 1 rings its bell on the sale of intoxicating liquors.

That the prohibition law will be enforced there is no question. This is not the country of speak easies, and when the police have their laws they enforce them to the letter. Governor Smith and the city court officials have been frank in their statements that they intend to enforce the laws.

Many of the more prominent clubs have declared that they will go one better than the law, and prohibit the keeping of liquor within their doors.

How to Cure a Nervous Headache.

The ordinary nervous headache will be greatly relieved and in many cases entirely cured by removing the waist of one's dress, putting the bare back up on the back, out of the way and while leaning over a basin placing a sponge soaked in water as hot as it can be borne on the back of the neck. Repeat this 3 or 4 times, also applying the sponge to the forehead, and the strained muscles and nerves that have caused so much suffering will be left to relax and soothe. That gives out depression, and temporarily the pain promptly vanishes.

How to Have Sweet Pies All Summer.

When the sweet pies come into season, out the jars of as soon as they begin to form. Then from forming the jars into their liquid state, and keep on the jars for a few days, and the pies will be secured. But if you don't do it, you will have to wait for the pies during the summer.

WILLIAM ROCKEFELLER.

WILLIAM ROCKEFELLER.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Dec. 30.—William Rockefeller, Standard Oil magnate, has capitulated to the Adirondack woodsmen, who for years have disputed his right to prohibit them from hunting and fishing on his extensive estate.

There are 52,000 acres in the Rockefeller estate, and on it is much good hunting and fishing. When Mr. Rockefeller came into possession of the land he issued orders that thereafter there should be no more trespassing by either hunters or fishermen. The natives resented, and armed men who were set to watch them were killed from ambush, timberland was burned and the life of the owner threatened.

It is not known that it was out of Christian spirit that the order prohibiting trespassing was withdrawn, but it is hoped so.

Archbishop Thomas a Becket assassinated in the cathedral at Canterbury; born about 1117. Becket was the first Saxon archbishop of Canterbury after the Norman conquest. As chancellor of England he won the good will of King Henry II. by his services as a courtier and a soldier in battle and through the king's influence was appointed archbishop. After that he antagonized the crown. Four barons, the servants of the king, were the agents of his death.

TAFT'S INJUNCTIONS AGAINST LABOR.

(Ohio Democrat.)
The present Republican panic has brought Secretary Taft's labor record forth to the front by the granting of injunctions. An injunction was granted against the American Federation of Labor a few days ago by Justice G. D. W. based his action upon the opinions of Secretary Taft when he was on the Federal bench in Cincinnati. Since the granting of the above mentioned injunction a court in Athens county granted an injunction against the striking brick workers at that place. In granting the same the court quoted freely from the decision of Secretary Taft. Surely the laboring people will not take kindly to the candidacy of "Injunction Taft."

AN OHIO CANDIDATE

(Toledo Citizen.)
The suggestion of General Isaac R. Sherwood as the candidate of the Ohio Democracy for president is meeting with much favor throughout the state, and there is no doubt that his nomination would insure party harmony in Ohio, cement the factions in other states and attract large numbers of Republicans everywhere to the support of the Democratic standard bearer.

The Ohio Democracy has abundant presidential timber. With leaders like Judge Hays, James E. Campbell, Tom L. Johnson and General Sherwood, the party at large might go much farther and fare worse than would be the case in the event of the nomination of any one of them.

While the Citizen would support Mr. Bryan with all the enthusiasm that characterized the campaigns of 1896 and 1900, it is conceded that he has no mortgage on the nomination.

Heavy fines inflicted on corporations FALL FINALLY ON THEIR STOCKHOLDERS through a corresponding loss of dividend paying power and the lowering of market prices for their stocks. The PROPER remedy is punishment behind iron bars.

The apprehension excited among investors and speculators by the Standard Oil's $29,240,000 fine did an IMMENSE AMOUNT OF HARM through the enormous losses to which it led. In combination with the prosecution of the Southern railway by southern states, involving the conflict between North Carolina and Alabama and the United States courts, that EXTRAVAGANT fine, so suggestive of opera bouffe, was the immediate cause of heavy liquidation that turned the New York stock market into a storm center.

The righting and correction of wrongs practiced in violation of the interstate and antitrust laws of congress would have had no disturbing effects upon investors and the public mind IF PROPERLY VIEWED.

tion and has not attempted to file any. He is receptive and willing to serve, if the party drafts him. That is the length and breadth of his position, and it is entirely creditable to him. There is nothing in this attitude that should prevent other states than Nebraska from bringing forward other candidates, if they desire to do so, and in that event it is most desirable that the Ohio Democracy should enter the lists. Indeed, an Ohio candidate would be the very best thing for the party in this state.

There is room in the Democratic arena for all leaders with presidential aspirations and for all their friends who desire to aid them. The national convention should be a deliberative body.

The photograph was taken on board the Hibernia during the recent shooting. It realizes in the most wonderful manner the tremendous pall of smoke that spread itself around the ship after the firing of the great 12-inch gun, which reduced the hulk of the old battleship Hero, used as a target to scrap iron in about five minutes.—Illustrated London News.

AFTER DAWES

EX-COMMANDER OF THE G. A. R. ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR CONGRESS.

DAWES IS ROASTED

By Zanesville Newspaper For Calling a Secret Meeting of Congressional Committee.

The Zanesville Times-Recorder Monday morning formally announces the candidacy of General Robert B. Brown, ex-commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., who lives in that city, for membership in Congress from the Fifteenth district, against Beman G. Dawes, the present incumbent, who formerly lived in Newark but now resides in Marietta. The paper roasts Dawes in the following article:

"Hon. Beman G. Dawes wants so badly to be returned to Congress for a third term that he shows evidence of resorting to the original unsavory methods by which he gained his first nomination.

"Mr. Dawes was in Zanesville the other day conferring secretly with certain Zanesville politicians, who can always be counted upon to put all the obstacles possible in the pathway of local Republican success. So far as known, he did not call upon any of the party leaders, did not recognize any member of the organization, and wholly ignored the party newspapers and the public. He seems to have been too busy scheming for himself to have had any thought about his party or his constituents. The result of that scheming has become known.

"Ignoring the chairman of the Fifteenth district Republican congressional committee—Peter G. Black of this city—he has had three members of the committee whom he presumes to control unite in signing a call for the committee to meet at Marietta next Thursday, January 2, immediately after the meeting of the Republican state committee.

"With the foreknowledge of the cut-and-dried program for the congressional committee has been prepared by Mr. Dawes, which he expects to force through. This program will of course give Mr. Dawes all the advantage possible, but it is hardly probable that he will dare go to the extreme of four years ago, when he had the committee permit him to select a solid delegation in his own county, while he was allowed to fight all the other candidates in their counties.

A WATCH MEETING.

BRANCH

OF THE STATE AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION FOR LICKING COUNTY.

F. H. Ballou Writes a Most Interesting Letter Concerning Doings of Department.

Branch Office of The Agricultural Experiment Station for Licking County.

After four years service as assistant horticulturist at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, I, with my family, am returning to Newark, and will occupy our cottage on Monroe avenue, near the Children's Home.

I am still retained by the Experiment Station as assistant horticulturist, but am receiving an unusual promotion most gratifying to myself and friends and of some importance to my home county. A branch office is being established and equipped at my home, to which much of the horticultural correspondence of the station will be forwarded for attention and answer, and where the writing and illustration of station horticultural bulletins will be prominent features of service.

There have been planned by myself and approved by the chief horticulturist and director of the Experiment Station, nearly a half hundred definite lines of horticultural work designed to afford material for notes and photographs from which to prepare as many practical, elementary circulars, bulletins and treatises which will especially appeal to beginners in fruit and vegetable gardening. This detail work in planning, culture, pruning, training and fertilization of plants, vines and trees, and the photography and field notes will be pursued and secured principally at "Dale View," my formerly well known fruit gardens a few miles out from the city.

Special work in orchard practice has also been planned by the station, to be taken up in different localities of Ohio. This will include the establishment of dwarf orchards, close-planted orchards, variety orchards and experiments in the fertilization and rejuvenation of older orchards. This work it is planned, I shall be closely identified with.

While the publication of purely practical bulletins, dealing with the A B C principals of horticulture or agriculture, was not formerly considered as even a part of the mission of experiment stations, the demand for such practical treatises has become so general and so insistent that a failure to meet this demand would mean the loss of opportunity for real helpfulness to a great number of our people.

It is hoped that the citizens of Licking county and of all central Ohio, may especially avail themselves of the privilege of keeping in touch with their Agricultural Experiment Station, through this, the only branch or sub-office devoted alone to horticultural interests in the state.

Every home owner or person who is interested in the earning of a livelihood or the paying for a home by the tilling of the soil, should have his name on mailing list of the Experiment Station at Wooster. The bulletins are free to all residents of Ohio, and are designed to be instructive and helpful in every branch of agriculture.

Requests for bulletins may be sent direct to the Experiment Station at Wooster, or to the office here at Newark, where prompt attention will be given such requests.

Correspondence relating to horticultural matters will be cheerfully answered from the sub-office at Newark. Questions concerning farming or livestock, may also be included. Such questions will be turned over to the proper departments at Wooster, and the correspondents will receive personal replies to their queries, from the chiefs of the respective departments of the station.

Address all letters intended for our home office to F. H. Ballou, Assistant Horticulturist, Newark, O., R. F. D. No. 4.

A NEW SITE

Suggested for the Hospital for Crippled Children by Traction Line Representatives.

Columbus, Dec. 30.—Daniel J. Ryan and L. P. Stephens, representing the Columbus, New Albany and Johnstown Traction Line, called at the office of State Auditor Guilbert to urge the Walcutt and Peters farms, six miles east of Columbus, along what is a site for the proposed state hospital for crippled children. The members of the commission are not satisfied with any of the sites offered here, and since it has been decided that it must be located within visiting distance of Columbus, it becomes necessary to solicit new sites.

Governor Harris objects to the soil of Minerva Park, a site that otherwise meets all the requirements, and he has won over to his view a majority of the commission.

There is another farm along the C. N. A. & J. traction line, that has been placed before the commission. It is known as the Porter farm. Though the traction line representatives did not come in the interest of the Porter farm, Auditor Guilbert asked them about it.

The traction line representatives agreed that if the hospital is located along its line it will put in a third rail from its junction with the steam railroad—Pennsylvania and B. & O. at Alum creek station, so that steam railroad cars may be shifted over its line to the hospital.

Johnson of Minnesota

One of the Common People, Forceful in Character, Who Looms Up in the Presidential Limelight—How He "Made Good" Despite the Adverse Circumstances of His Early Life.

AFTER all, the American people despise snobbery. There is but a very small class among us that ape aristocracy and puts an anathema upon a pedestal to kiss the dirt at its feet. For proof of this we have only to look to Minnesota, wherein dwells a man who in these antecapital days is being exploited for a presidential nomination by thousands of men who never saw him and never heard of him until three years ago.

Why this man's presidential boom? Just because he has "made good" despite the fact that his father died in the poorhouse and his mother took in washing. Nobody disputes the popular assumption that Governor John A. Johnson is an able man and of presidential dimensions. But, for all that, he never would have been mentioned for the presidency save for this poorhouse and washerwoman story. Upon this foundation we base the proof that America, heart, head and hand, is still essentially anti-snob.

In 1904 the Democrats of Minnesota nominated for governor a country editor, the St. Peter Herald man. John Johnson was a pretty good country editor, too, but there were some 700 others in Minnesota. St. Peter is a small town, and the Herald is a small paper. But it is not necessarily true that a small paper in a small town has a small man at the head of it. Plenty of instances to the contrary might be cited, but Johnson's is enough. For fifteen years Editor Johnson had run the editorial end of the Herald, while his partner, Henry Essler, had run the mechanical end. Both took a hand at the business end. Johnson became secretary and then president of the state editorial association. So the other editors knew him, and they liked him. Johnson had served one term as a Ten days before election some boomerang thrower in Minnesota printed and distributed a circular setting forth that Candidate Johnson's father had been a drunkard and had died in the poorhouse and that his mother had taken in washing. You cannot find in Minnesota today the thrower of this political boomerang. Most likely he is and was then an inmate of the asylum for the insane.

Some supporters of Johnson, too much excited to know a golden opportunity when they met it face to face, were perturbed by this circular and urged the candidate to make a strong denial of the statements.

"I can't," was Johnson's quiet reply.

Story Went the Rounds.

The reason he couldn't was that what the circular said about his parents was true. A St. Paul newspaper which supported him sent a staff correspondent posthaste to the little town of St. Peter. The staff man investigated the immediate antecedents of John Johnson. The reportorial assignment would have delighted any good newspaper man. It is not often that a reporter strikes such "human interest" color. The story of John Johnson of St. Peter, as published in the St. Paul paper, quickly went the rounds of the Minnesota press; also it went the rounds of the corner groceries and the drug stores and the country hotel offices, where governors are made and presidents are prepared from the raw material.

The St. Paul reporter discovered that Gustaf Johnson, a blacksmith, had emigrated from Sweden about fifty years ago, settling in St. Peter. He had been a heavy drinker in his native land and came to America in the hope that he might reform. He did reform was in debt to the undertaker. The boy studied hard while working in the drug store. The little public library was in the same block. He read many books from the library, being chiefly interested in history. Meanwhile he studied pharmacy, too, and eventually he became a registered pharmacist.

Real Journalist With a Real Job.

After nine years in the drug store John Johnson became a journalist. In the cities a journalist is sometimes described as a newspaper man out of a job. In St. Peter John Johnson was a real journalist with a real job, paying for a half interest in the Herald, for which friends who believed in him had put up the money. Johnson had paid off the undertaker. He had bought in the two room family homestead, which was about to be sold for taxes, and he had added other rooms and improvements.

So this was the story discovered by the St. Paul reporter. It was so magnificently true that American Minnesota arose gloriously to the occasion. President Roosevelt carried the always Republican state of Minnesota by a majority of 101,462—a hundred thousand above the normal majority. But hold! John Albert Johnson, Democrat, was elected governor by a majority of 7,800. Not a very large majority that, and yet he turned 84,400 votes to get it.

The country editor closed down his desk at St. Peter, probably saying to Henry Essler: "I'll be back in two years. Try to keep the subscribers in line, and don't let the ads get away from you. Keep the jobwork going."

Then he went to work at his new job in St. Paul, his office being in Minnesota's fine new state capitol building. Did Johnson as governor of a great state pose as a sleek sentimentalist friend of "the common people"? Not a bit of it—not he. Johnson made no pretense of being ultra democratic. He wore good clothes, the prevailing style, and cut just as dignified a figure at a gubernatorial reception as he had cut in the editorial sanctum at St. Peter. He had sense enough to adapt himself to his environment.

He Made Good.

Johnson also had the moral and mental backbone to make him Johnny-on-the-spot with his new job. He had had no experience as an editor when he took hold of the St. Peter Herald. But he made good. He made good also as governor of Minnesota. Do you want proof? Then read the election returns of 1906. Normally the Republican candidate should have won by about 70,000 majority. As a matter of fact, Johnson won by 72,000 majority. Somebody asked him how he did it.

"I only tried to make good," replied Johnson.

No boomerang was thrown in the second campaign. If Johnson had not made good in his two years' term as governor he would have been sent back to the St. Peter Herald office. As it is, he now stands in the glare of the presidential limelight. The washerwoman circular promulgated by the unidentified asylum inmate made him governor, but as governor he made good himself. Those years of struggle, of self effacement, of mother love and brotherly devotion in St. Peter gave him the stamina to make good. When some one asked him what he considered the most important result of his administration as governor he replied:

"Law enforcement. We have brought about conditions by which the state officers obey the law themselves and enforce it."

But Governor Johnson did not stop at enforcement of the laws on the statute books. By his influence he brought about the enactment of new laws to meet conditions. One thing he did was to have the legislature give him a board of tax equalizers. Johnson appointed three of the best men in the state. Under the law this board had only advisory powers. The governor used his discretion. The steel trust has immense mines in northern Minnesota. These mines were taxed on a valuation of $28,000,000 when Johnson took office. Now they are taxed on a valuation of $194,000,000, and the poor taxpayer feels better. The electric railways uniting St. Paul and Minneapolis are paying twice as much taxes as they paid before the advent of Johnson. Tax dodgers have been winning since Johnson became governor.

Strike Settled Without Riots.

The way Governor Johnson settled a strike last summer shows his power as a conservative official. The miners in the Mesaba range went out, and there was imminent peril of violence. Instead of sending his state militia to the scene Governor Johnson himself went alone. He talked with the strike leaders and with the employers. He visited the strikers and heard their grievances. He gave them good advice. If they remained orderly, he said, no troops would be sent, but if they became violent he would be forced to quell their violence with soldiers. The strike was settled without riots.

Some persons take pleasure in comparing John Johnson with Abraham Lincoln. This is due to the fact that both men had immediate ancestors of the kind that, as a rule, do not produce society swells. Johnson seems to have much of the homely honesty of Lincoln and more dignity than "Honest Abe." Whatever he may turn out to be in the future, we must go back to the original thesis and assert that if Johnson had been a candidate for head shik of Fifth avenue's Four Hundred or for chief chimpanzee of the Newport set that lunatic's circular would have defeated him. But he was running merely for the governorship of the plain, common, sensible, intelligent people of an American commonwealth.

"BEST EVER" AT Y. M. C. A.

The committee in charge of the New Year's Open House at the Y. M. C. A. hope to make this year the "best ever."

The program will be quite varied. In the morning the gymnasium will be thrown open to all the boys of the city. In the afternoon the reception will begin at 2 o'clock.

At 3 o'clock an interesting program will be given in Taylor Hall. Miss Gardner of Delaware, has been engaged to give a series of readings. She comes highly recommended. The rest of the program will be made up of local stars. Among them is Miss Irene Cripps, who has completed a course of study at colleges.

Look for the complete announcement of program next week.

Following the program in Taylor Hall an interesting program will be given in the gymnasium. The juniors have been practicing diligently and will render a very pretty drill. A sword drill will be a novel feature. A wrestling match between Duncan and Cullen will be a lively one. The gym men believe that they have one of the most interesting programs of years.

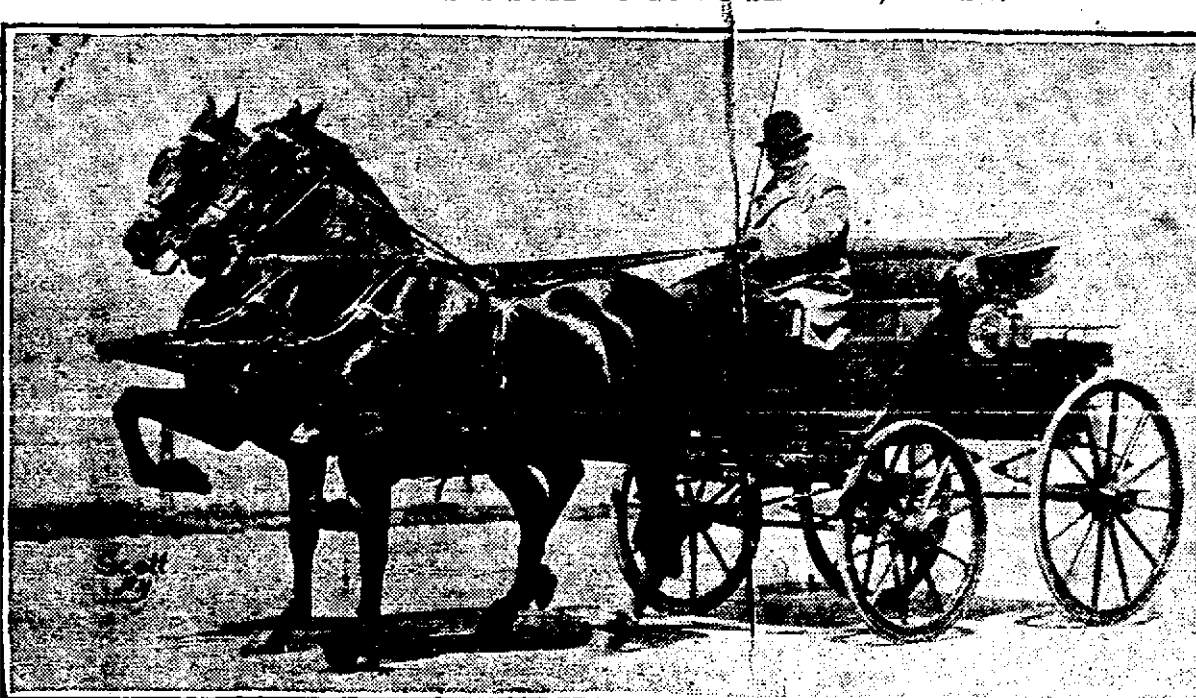

Much interest is centering in the exhibits that will be held that day. In the art exhibit it is expected to have many fine works of art owned or painted by local people.

The photograph or amateur camera exhibit is drawing out many splendid kodak collections. The post card collection is also a novel feature and will prove an attractive one. Some boys have as many as 500 sets of humorous cards.

Anybody in the city is eligible to compete and all who have either art pictures or paintings that they will loan for the occasion, or camera or post card collections are urged to assist and report to the Y. M. C. A. office no later than Monday.

T. M. Edmiston and Haynes Bros. will give valuable prizes for the best collections of amateur photography. Mr. A. L. Norton will present a book to the boy with the best card collection.

NOTED SHOW HORSES SOLD TO GO TO SEATTLE, WASH.

John Reamer Driving Allen Belle and Colonial Belle
New York, Dec. 28.—John Considine of the theatrical firm of Sullivan & Considine, has purchased three high-class show horses to ship to Seattle, Wash., where he intends to exhibit them next year. From Emille Sayer he bought the fourteen-hand pony Miniature Forest King, winner of several blue ribbons in harness at the summer shows last season. He bought Allen Belle and Colonial Belle, one of which won in the dealers' class at the National Horse Show of 1905. The price paid for the latter pair was reported as nearly $4,000. They are trotting bred carriage horses.

CORNET SOLOIST

Was Max Faetkenheuer Who is Manager of Cleveland's Fine New Hippodrome.

Max Faetkenheuer, manager of the new Cleveland, Hippodrome, began his public career as a cornet soloist after which he took up the violin, and with the bow and fiddle in hand, came to the Lyceum theater as director of the orchestra, about 12 years ago.

In a few years he had contracts to furnish music for practically all the theaters in Cleveland. In 1904 he promoted and built the Euclid avenue Garden theater which he has managed successfully since that time. About the same time, he conceived the idea of a gigantic play house for Cleveland, one larger than anything in America, west of New York. A stock company was organized, and the $2,000,000 structure about to be opened is the result.

NEW TRIAL

M. M. TAYLOR

GRANTED PLAINTIFF IN DAMAGE CASE AGAINST TRACTION COMPANY.

MAY MAKE RACE FOR MEMBER OF STATE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Docket Colled and Assignment of Civil Cases Made—News of the Court House.

He Has Been Solicited to Allow the Use of His Name Before Republican Convention.

In the case of Lizzie Brown vs. C. N. & Z. Railway Co., the Court of Common Pleas sustained the motion filed by plaintiff for a new trial. The plaintiff was injured in a street car accident, and afterwards died, and the suit is brought by her administrator to recover damages. James, Fulton & Fulton; Fitzgibbon, Pomeroy.

It has been rumored on the streets that Milton M. Taylor, of this city, the well known member of the Board of Public Service, would be a candidate for member of the State Board of Public Works. An Advocate representative called on Mr. Taylor at the office of the board on Monday morning and asked him if it was true that he intended to make the race for the nomination at the next Republican state convention. The genial service board member replied that he had had the matter under consideration for the past couple of weeks. He has received a number of communications from friends on service boards in various parts of the state asking that he allow his name to be presented. Mr. Taylor informed the Advocate that he had not as yet decided on what course he would pursue in the matter and that it would all depend on circumstances which might arise later.

The court called the docket, and made an assignment of civil cases. The case of Sarah Blake et al vs. Simeon T. Cary et al, was dismissed by plaintiff without prejudice to a new action. Bolton, Smythe & Smythe, James.

In the case of Franklin Bank Co. vs. David M. Smith, leave was given to amend answer. Kibler & Montgomery, Smythe & Smythe.

Arthur J. Baldwin vs. Wm. D. White, motion to strike out certain portions of the petition, sustained. Kibler & Montgomery.

For Overdriving Horse. The case of the State of Ohio vs. Thoms, charged with overdriving a horse, was tried in Probate court. J. R. Fitzgibbon for the prosecution, and P. B. Smythe for the defense.

Transcript Filed. A transcript from the criminal docket of D. A. Bricker, mayor of Utica, in the case of the State of Ohio vs. Alfred Montross, who was fined $100 and costs on the charge of keeping a place for the sale of intoxicating liquors illegally, has been filed with the clerk of the court.

CHIEF JUSTICE DEAD. Madison, Wis., Dec. 30.—Chief Justice John F. Cassidy, of the Wisconsin Supreme court, died this morning. He was chairman of the Wisconsin delegation to the national conventions that nominated Lincoln and Garfield.

KISSING "THE TOE OF THE POPE."

Although the temporal power of the popes ceased in 1870, His Holiness still maintains a sovereign state within the Vatican, and the pomp and ceremony of his position are more than usually conspicuous at the holiday season. The Guardia Palatina, which is uniformed in scarlet trousers and blue tunics, are a feature of his entourage. The leading figure in front of the Pope's chair in the outdoor picture is that of the Swiss Guard, whose uniform is red, yellow and black, and was designed by Raphael. Behind are officers of the Noble Guard, in which the late pope's nephew, Count Camille Pecci, is an officer. This scene is in the Cortile di St. Damaso.

"ELIM OF THE WILDERNESS."

Sermon By J. Morriston Thomas.

Ex. XV:27. "And they came to Elim where were three score and ten palm trees, and twelve springs of water, and they encamped there by the waters."

This story of Israel's pilgrimage is so intensely human that it is of universal application. Even thus our life, a progression from captivity and restraint, through various experiences into the possession of the Land of Promise.

No single experience expresses the whole of life. For the whole is greater than its parts; but every real experience centers into the character of the whole.

Elim is the realm of liberty; there the glorious revelation of liberty is revealed; and the fetters are made tolerable in the prospect of deliverance.

Marah is the sphere of physical affliction; a condition which is as real and inevitable as the other. We are delivered from one terror only to find that we may face another, and the reason for this lies in our lack of forethought on in our inexperience. In reality, it was a greater thing that these people should be delivered from themselves than that they should be free of the Egyptians; and so they are made to feel their impotence beside the bitter waters of Marah. They had mistaken liberty for license, as many others have done after them, and hence the Marah experience operates as a curb to their lawless propensities. By and by when their murmurings had ceased, the Israelites were led to the shores of Elim's palm trees, beside Elim's springs.

Spring is with varied emotions that we gather here today at the close of this year's journey.

Verily, we have known strange experiences. We have stood in light and in shadow, and in the midst of both, we have known the strong walks and the strong shadows with a sense of deliverance. The day of darkness was changed into a day of praise. But the sense of triumph was short-lived, for on the morrow we came to the bitter waters and into a condition of misery again. We thought about the guiding star was a wandering light. We exchanged, as it were, the angelic strains for the mocking strains of the Red Sea. Next to aggressive power endurance; and when we have learned our lesson in the experience we are forthwith led to the peace and comfort of the palm groves beside the still waters. Each year is a palm of strength and opportunity. The seventy palm trees of Elim typify the promise of life. "In the days of our years are three-score years and ten." Some of you rest this morning under the shadow of the seventieth palm tree.

Each month in the year is a well of comfort. You will never know you have arrived at Elim until you look below the surface of things. Some mariners dying or thirst have actually signaled far out at sea in their distress, while all the time they were sailing in the fresh waters of the Amazon.

We cannot abide at Elim, and attain unto the Better Country. There are other lights to wage, there are other privations to withstand, and there are fairer shades and deeper wells on the onward march.

A BOLD THEFT WAS COMMITTED AT POST OFFICE

A bold theft was committed in the postoffice Monday morning, and though the thief will not confess, he was caught with the goods on by Assistant Postmaster Siegfried in the alley south of the postoffice, and his booty, a two dollar bill, was taken from him after a struggle.

The robber was in the postmaster's office, and though Mr. Siegfried was in the room at the time, he grabbed the money and started on a mad run through the big back room where the clerks were at work, but none of them stopped him although several attempted to.

The thief in the case is the valuable Boston terrier of Postmaster Siegfried, and the dog has the habit of grabbing most anything in sight and running away with it. The bill was rescued from his teeth before any particular damage was done to the note of Uncle Sam.

DECEMBER BASEBALL

Last Game of Year Played In Midwinter at Recreation Park at Columbus.

Fast and thrilling as in midsummer, was the game played between Kramer's Clippers and the Interurban Pickups at Recreation park at Columbus, Sunday afternoon. It was midwinter baseball and the weather was no colder than players frequently encounter at the opening of the regular season or in the fog end of the championship schedule. It was the 29th of December, but conditions were such that the grounds were in fine shape and the fastest kind of ball was played. The score of 2 to 0 in the Clipper's favor in seven innings shows that it was no slouch of a game.

The game was a record for time, everything taken into consideration, but 55 minutes being consumed. But one error was made.

The features were many. Eddie Hare, in center for his team, made a circus catch in the first inning which drew great applause. Sherman made a beautiful throw home in the second, nailing a runner at the plate, while Zimpher ran bases in fine style. The fielding of Henry Clay Bailey on first was also a feature, as was that of Adams, Kramer and Francis. Zimpher caught his usual good game.

President Berner rendered good service in the capacity of an umpire. A good-sized crowd was present.

Weather permitting, next Sunday the same two teams will play again, which, perhaps, will be, if played, the first baseball game in 1908.

BUNNY WILL MEET ALL EXPECTATIONS

According to President Herrmann of the Cincinnati club, Catcher Bunny Pearce, purchased from this city, will be carried next season as a third catcher. In an interview with Charley Zuber President Herrmann said: "Bunny Pearce will be carried throughout the coming season provided he shows form that is expected of him."

WANTS DIVORCE AND RECEIVER.

Marysville, Dec. 30.—Franklin C. Slack, owner of the Marysville Glove factory, has been sued for divorce by his wife, Madge M. Slack, who charges extreme cruelty, abandonment and gross neglect of duty. Slack deserted his wife last August. The last heard of him he was in Toledo. Since he left home Mrs. Slack has managed his glove factory. She now asks the court to appoint a receiver for the factory and be decreed alimony.

TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

Michael Duross, 63, falls into the canal at Zanesville and is drowned. The warm weather has enabled the farmers living near Canal Dover to start their plowing.

Mrs. Peter H. Geusen, 50, applied to Sheriff Smithley of Zanesville and asks to be locked up. She says she is insane.

Mrs. S. J. Clark, the first teacher in the Zanesville public schools, is 92 years old but will attend the dedication of the new high school building next week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bryan of Zanesville celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary Saturday.

Arthur Wilson of Cambridge threw a cup of hot coffee in the face of his wife and almost blinded her. He has been sent to the Zanesville workhouse.

Although his wife and children have deserted him, Jacob Kline of Prospect has been arrested for non-support.

WHAT WILL BE THE OUTCOME?

Zanesville Likely to Enter the Central and Question to be Settled Thursday Night.

Everybody seems to be at sea regarding the final outcome of the O. P. circuit. The meeting at Cleveland occurs on Tuesday of next week and it may be that the question may not be settled then but may go over until a future meeting. We were in hopes that Zanesville might become a part of the circuit next season, but there is no telling just where the Pottery are. The papers of the Muskingum capital have been claiming that Zanesville had been offered and accepted the Canton franchise. This is not exactly the case. One of the club directors was in the city Sunday a guest of Business Manager Maurath, of the local club. He stated that there was a tentative agreement between the club directors and President Carson, of the Central league. It is not known which city they would supplant, but it is supposed to be Canton.

A meeting of the Zanesville stockholders will be held Thursday of this week and the matter will be put up to them to either accept or reject the proposition. The local papers are boosting it, claiming that it will be a better advertising medium for the city than either the O. P. or P. O. M. We will not admit that this is true, and would advise the stockholders to think twice before they accept President Carson's proposition. They claim that the admission of Zanesville would save a mileage of over 500 miles, but we do not see how that is possible. There would be the same long jump from Grand Rapids to Evansville, which would mean the loss of hundreds of dollars to them every time it was made.

Newark fans would like to see the capital of Muskingum a part of the O. P., but we are not going to get down on our knees and do the coaxing stunt. We will play ball just the same next season, no matter whether Zanesville is a part of the circuit or not. And we will have a good fast team, one capable of finishing up around the top.

Next Monday night the Newark contingent will leave for Cleveland, and the great fight (if there be any) will start Tuesday morning bright and early. The chances are that the league as it now stands will not be altered with, and the same eight clubs that finished the past season, will comprise the O. P. for 1908.

ALL READY FOR CLEVELAND MEETING

There will be a meeting of the local baseball directors some evening this week at which time arrangements will be made to attend the Cleveland meeting. President A. A. Stasel, Business Manager Frank Maurath, Secretary W. B. Hopkins and Manager Robert Berryhill will be in attendance. Several of the club directors may also attend. The party will leave for Columbus Monday evening, taking a sleeper at 8 p. m. For some time after midnight, arriving at Cleveland at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning. The business session will begin at 10 o'clock and the meeting may last two days. The clubs in the eastern end of the circuit favor the retention of President Charles Morton and in case the league remains intact his election may be opposed by the four western clubs making it a tie. In that case a compromise would have to be effected.

PAN HANDLE TEAM FAILS TO SHOW UP

The game of ten pins between the Music Hall team and Panhandles of Columbus, which was to have been roiled at Columbus Sunday, did not take place as the Panhandle team did not show up. The Newark team made some nice scores in practice games. Joe Moser, F. Flicker, J. Geigenberger, D. Page, S. Morrison and F. Hayes went along as rosters.

Tonight the Eagles will roll the Consumers. This is a transfer, two games from January 2, as the Western Stars can not play tonight on account of absence of some team members, who are out of the city.

The two teams will please take notice and report in time.

FOUL MURDER OF B. & O. OPERATOR IN W. VA.

Said to Have Worked in Newark Three Months Ago, But Records at Offices Show No Such Name.

ROBBERY WAS MOTIVE OF THE CRIME

Station Burned, and it is Supposed That He Recognized the Robbers and They Murdered Him to Escape Detection.
Body Found in Ruins.

Edward Hutchinson, a former resident of Newark, was cruelly murdered early Monday morning at Clarington, Ohio.

Clarington, Ohio, Dec. 30.—Ed Hutchinson, who came here from Newark, Ohio, three months ago, was robbed and murdered this morning and the station was burned. His charred body was later recovered. Hutchinson had been bound and gagged, and the robbers are believed to have obtained a large sum of money. The theory is that the agent recognized the intruders and to cover up their robbery they were forced to murder the station agent.

Later Monday the following United Press Association sent the following additional details of the murder:

Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 30.—Indications point to a most brutal murder of Edward Hutchinson, a B. & O. operator at Welcome, W. Va., early this morning. Persons living nearby noticed the station on fire.

Searching the ruins they found the charred body of the operator with evidence about his arms, legs and head that he had been bound and gagged. No trace could be found of any money or tickets kept in the station, hence the murder and robbery theory.

Investigation of the B. & O. offices here disclosed the fact that no Edward Hutchinson had ever been in their employ at Newark. There was a P. J. Hutchinson, however, who fired for several months and afterwards was a brakeman. He served in that capacity for several months and about four months ago resigned his position stating that he was going to New York. While here he roomed in the Bucker block. He was said to have been married to a Mrs. Core, widow of Jerry Core, and that lady now resides in Columbus, having parted from her husband, according to some of the B. & O. boys who were acquainted with the couple.

While there is a difference in the initials of the man found in Welcome, W. Va., and the Hutchinson who formerly made this city his home, in all probability they are one and the same.

scooned on one of the trucks, but when disturbed took a "bike" and was finally captured in the P. Smith Son's Lumber yard, and sent back to Columbus on Pan Handle No. 3, at 6:15 o'clock.

The big poultry show will open in this city at the Armory on East Main street, Tuesday morning, and all day the heavy shipments of fine birds have been arriving by express, over the interurbans and steam roads from the east, west, north and south, and never before has such interest been manifest.

The secretary and assistants were kept busy all day Saturday and until late in the night completing the records until about 800 birds are recorded, comprising entries from the city here, all parts of the county (Kirkersville sending about 50), Columbus, Coshocton, Roseville, Lancaster, Baltimore, Erie, Pa., Mt. Vernon, Barnesville, Nashport, Wheeling, W. Va., Chicago, Milford Center, Black Run, Tuscarawas, Roscoe, Cambridge, Delaware and Zanesville, all together making by far the finest exhibit ever shown in Central Ohio.

One display in particular, of bantams from Coshocton, will be well worth seeing, and comprises several specimens never shown here before, of black buff and partridge cochins, bantams, light and dark brahmas, and red pyle games.

The greatest competition, however, will be in the American class, there being 104 barred plymouth rocks, 65 buff rocks, 27 white rocks, 86 buff wyandottes, 37 white wyandottes, 44 silver wyandottes, 15 partridge wyandottes, and 20 columbian.

The entries in white and brown leghorns and in Rhode Island reds and erpingtons, are exceedingly fine, showing of pigeons, cats, white rats, rabbits, turkeys and ducks will add much to the attraction of the show.

There are over 80 exhibitors, and the hall will be open to the public each day and evening during the week.

The Ohio State Poultry and Corn show will be held in Washington C. H., January 7-11. The big catalogue and premium list is now being sent out. Entries will close January 4. J. A. Bash, secretary.
